"This is a year for excellence." This quotation, by Mr. Stuart, was contained in an editorial in the first issue of the Lowellette. This was an excellent start for a new year, new administration, partially new faculty, and a new freshman class.

Guest Editorial

back!! Students and faculty, in to get into the routine of ities. The fledgling Freshmenning to feel at home inoundings and the blue-cores flaunt the assur-rriving their firstdistinguishing them-ow role as upperclass-ified Seniors is left theod examples for under-olary conduct.
ortunity to set ourther it be run- pulling an "A"ty for success

STUDENTS and FACULTY:

This is the year for EXCELLENCE at Lowell High.

The band started our school year off on the right foot by placing high in the state contest at Indianapolis.

The football and cross country teams are showing great improvement. This past summer many students have brought honor to the school and community. Many of the faculty members have attended summer school. Some have traveled extensively during the summer. All of this will make for better students and teachers.

This is just the beginning of an outstanding year. No school is any better than the individual student and teacher. At all times the individual should remember he is representing Lowell High School. What you do reflects on the whole school system. If you are successful we all bask in the glory; if you do something wrong we all get the blame.

Everyone is expected to give his utmost to make this the greatest year in the history of Lowell High School.

Thomas I. Stuart
Principal

LOWELLETTTE

1 faculty, welcome to a new ear at Lowell High School. has a new staff, and we n compare favorable with Your first issue is things must end.

Hello there" I hope his summer as much. Now it's time for school all the many activities.

Blue Monday, and the freshmen ... of sophomores, every you aren't quite sure talking about, take a little sweaters. Pretty, huh?

Last week I was casually down the hall to my class before the bell was suddenly blindsided light. Eureka displaying his. Word of warning of hindering classes on time rings in front

The consensus that they really like Lynn Cox just loves and things dly thing" in this his and be surprised gal holding hers Bobbetta Willia that she thought mean, really neat. classmen should have and from what I've heard from them, (and believe it comes easy!) pretty things loose in the. The juniors have a remark about their rings

The day was declared "Color Day." All of the students don red and black outfits, making the Homecoming pep session, held on the football field, a colorful spectacular.

Those studious typists dig into their enormous assignment that Mr. Ham has just given them. All chairs are filled except for one . . . perhaps the occupant got a shock from his electric typewriter!

Paul Russel grinds out gain in Devil's Homecoming tie with division champion Griffith.

N. Dinsmore, J. Meyer, R. Clinton, and N. Strickhorn are making plans for the colorful red and black Pep Club bibs.

Hall monitors on duty.

The UP and DOWN of life between classes.

In keeping with the Hootenanny craze, the Senior Class of '64 held one after the Chesterton football game.

The Red Devils received excellent backing during the season. Excellence in school spirit is reflected in the large crowds at our sports events.

Mr. Huff encourages excellence in participation in all school activities in his address at the Homecoming pep session.

Coach Sheehan delivers one of his heated half-time rallies, firing up the Red Devils for the second half.

The proud fathers have ring-side seats as they watch their sons on Dads' Night.

Coaches Olsen and Clinton lead their Fighting Red Devils on to victory in the skit during the Homecoming pep session.

M. Mitchell scores winning TD in victory over the Panthers in the same skit.

The band and the pom-pom girls practice their routine for the up-coming Friday night football game.

Pep Band, including Mr. Minix, arouses the crowd at Homecoming pep session. And...

...keeps right on playing, helping the cheerleaders during the exciting battle.

Nervous students await the arrival of Mr. Huff for his advice or consent in the outer room of his office.

D. Heath, E. Govert, Mrs. Hetherington, L. Ruley, and J. Eaker count the thousands of Betty Crocker coupons on the way to a million, for a new activity bus.

The GAA girls seem to have resorted to playing with two volleyballs. Is it really easier to volley two balls at one time?

Sheehan's Shiners buff the Intramural All-Stars in the Faculty-All-Star Game. Don't take it too hard, fellows -- remember Dan Herbst, the official, has his apple to shine.

The flag at half-mast. A symbol of our grief. As a nation we mourned the deaths of President John F. Kennedy and General Douglas MacArthur. As a community we mourned the tragic deaths of seven youths. Surely we can never forget two such great Americans. Just as surely we will never forget our classmates and friends. This memorial section of the 1964 LOWELLIAN is in fond remembrance of them.

ADMINISTRATION
FACULTY

Mr. Stuart is seen looking over the plans for the addition to Lowell High. Still in the blue-print stage, the much-needed addition will be built on the land behind the now-standing high school. It will supply classrooms, including those specially equipped for study in the sciences, a new music room, a larger cafeteria, and a gymnasium to be used for instruction in physical education. Located in the student commons will be the built-in trophy case presented to the school by this year's graduating class in memory of those students, their fellow-classmates, who were taken from their presence by death.

Mr. Stuart closes the door on another school year. For seven years he served in the capacity of Assistant-Principal before becoming Principal.

After graduating from Veedersburg High School, he went to Wabash College where he received an A. B. From there he went to Purdue University for his M. S. He did graduate work for one year at Indiana University.

The seniors eagerly prepare for a long-awaited class meeting.

"How much taller will I be in heels? Will my cap fit my hair-style?" Jane expresses the thoughts of herself and her fellow senior girls as each is fitted for a cap and gown for Commencement. The people are: (left to right) Jane Meyer, the representative from the company, and Cindy Burger.

It would seem as if each of these seniors is doing something quite different from the other. Perhaps so, but they do all have one thing in common: they are attending the annual Senior Achievement Banquet, sponsored by the Lowell Lions' Club.

MANAGERS

BASKETBALL MANAGERS

C. Gorbail, D. Fish, J. Amey, D. Iliff

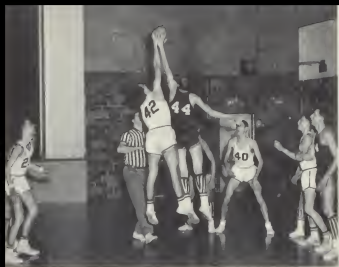

This was a familiar picture this year as All-Conference frontliner Reggie Llewellyn is wide-open under the basket. Reg was also named to the All-Sectional and All-County teams.

Ron Shipley ups another bucket against Griffith as Terry and Ray look on. Due to illness and injury this year, Ron failed to see much action. He made a fine come-back and performed well during the Sectionals.

Reggie fights for position as Ray dumps a two-pointer. Chances are that there was no rebound for Ray was a top scorer this year. Ray's All-Conference chances for next year look really good!

SENIOR - VARSITY

John "Turtle" Stuhlmacher stretches for jump ball during the Seniors vs. next year's varsity game. The hardened veterans proved their ability by beating the "young upstarts" by a score of 74 to 65! Reg Llewellyn led the scoring for the Seniors and Terry Hoffman was high point man for the varsity.

Steve Beier gets a shot off in spite of John's wild attempt to block his shot. Mr. Koontz should take note of how Reggie, Ronnie, and Terry are in position for the rebound. So you see the year wasn't wasted, coach!

Terry Brown displays his play-making ability before setting up Reggie for a two-pointer. Brownie played one of his finest games of the year by chipping in with 21 points.

 Row 2: L. McMillen, P. Russel, M. Zakula, D. Herbst, J. Rosenthal, V. Cornel.

WRESTLING

The wrestlers again had another fine season. This one outshines all others in that it has proven to be the best in the school's history. Not only did they win the Conference title for the fourth time in five years, but also the boys took the Sectional title for the first time! Lowell took a third place in the Regional meet by taking four points to beat the first place Hammond Tech. Dan Herbst and Mitch Zakula each took a first in Regional thus qualifying them for the State meet in which they each gained a fourth place. During the regular season our grapplers had a record of 12 wins and only 2 losses.

ROW 4: L. Rhubarts, J. Cox, R. Laumeyer, C. Graham, G. Llewellyn.

Joe Little chases a Wirt half-miler in a futile attempt to win the 880 yard race. Joe, who is chiefly a mile runner, is only a sophomore and will have two more years to display his talents.

Joe Little clears a high jump bar in true form. Joe, however, didn't take on the regular duties as high jumper. John Gray did almost all the jumping and did a fine job, too!

Chuck Laumeyer takes the lead in the high hurdles. Chuck did a fine job this year and his All-Conference chances for next year look good. John Gray is close behind him. He, too, has a fine chance next year.

Drummond black bests teammate Jack Drew by inches as they take first and second in the 220 in the meet with Wirt.

John Gray lets out with another fine jump. (He surely does get around!). John was our mainstay in this event also. He ran the low hurdles, too.

"Hammer" beats the ball as he runs for home plate. A run for the Devils!

Coach Forrester calls Jim Fiene to a halt as he approaches third base after making a fine hit.

First baseman Bob Foster makes a fine stretch and pick-up to retire a runner in a close play.

Freshman second baseman, Dennis Perzo, displays his swing against Gary Wirt. Dennis was but one of many underclassmen who made the squad this year.

Starting with a new constitution, the Student Council underwent a complete renovation this year. The reformed, well-organized Student Council started the 1963-64 school year by presenting a much-needed new score board to the school. This scoreboard can be used to keep track of points at wrestling meets as well as serving at basketball games.

Another major undertaking of the Student Council was the sponsoring of a drive for the needy at Christmas time. This drive was well-received and it is hoped it will be made an annual project of the Council. Under the competent leadership of Mr. Braun, the Student Council has many plans for the future that will be for the betterment of the school as well as the community.

"L" CLUB

The Lettermen's Club depends on more than mere brawn for success. The sweater or senior jacket represents much hard work, spirit, and sportsmanship, and the boys who wear them deserve much credit for the development of athletics in L. H. S.

This year, in addition to their own many projects, this group was responsible for helping outfit our cheerleaders with twelve new sweaters.

THESPIANS

Membership in the National Thespian Society, Troupe 1691 of Lowell High School, is attained through accumulation of points earned by participation in various school dramatic productions. This year, the Thespians took two field trips to Chicago to view the hit productions Camelot, How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, and The Fall of the Roman Empire. These trips prove valuable in that the drama enthusiasts are given the opportunity to observe live plays by professional actors. For the Thespians, under the sponsorship of Mr. Martin, the highlight of the year was the presentation of a two-hour concert by the nationally known Wayne King and his orchestra. This was the first of what the Thespians hope will be a series of professional entertainment to come to Lowell.

SENIOR PLAY

This lively courtroom comedy-drama centered around the jury's indecision as to the innocence or guilt of the defendant, one Yvette Yvette Gordon. Due to the persistence of Mrs. Livingston Baldwin Crane, a wealthy society woman, the jury was hopelessly deadlocked for a period of three days. However, through trickery, bribery, and blackmail, Mrs. Crane succeeded in persuading the jury to vote for an acquittal for the defendant.

"All right, Tony, just simmer down!"

"Well, Mrs. Crane, what is your verdict?"

"Now is hardly the time for poetry!"

JUNIOR PLAY

Based upon the autobiography of Jesse Stuart, the play told of the trials that young Jesse faced while trying to bring education to the children of rural Kentucky. Many of the parents were against education and wished to close the school. Jesse proved his ability as a teacher when his pupils won a scholastic contest with Landsburg School Champions. "The Thread That Runs So True" a difficult play to perform, was well done by the class of '65.

Make-up is being applied as performance time grows near.

A typical class room scene?

HI-SOCIETY

This year's All-School Show was built around the idea of the debut of a prominent society girl. The show was written by Dennis Keithley, Betty Gray, Jerry Boyd, Nancy Dinsmore, and Don McMahon. Betty Gray and Dennis Keithley were also the student directors. Several acts displayed the many talents of the Lowell High School students. Two of the evening's highlights were the boys can-can and ballroom dancing groups. Both of these were directed by Mrs. Hill. The entrance of the group of vaudevillians added fun, excitement, and hilarity to the show's entertainment. Altogether the EXCELLENCE of the show won it the acclaim of being one of the most successful ever staged by L. H. S.

HOME EC CLUB

All girls taking home economics, or who have been in home economics class for three years, are eligible for Home Economics Club. The EXCELLENCE of this club is demonstrated by the community services they perform each year. This year, at Christmas, the girls made gifts for the people in a convalescent home.

Each year this club sponsors a trip for all senior home economics students. Also, along with the G. A. A., the club sponsors the annual Mothers' Tea.

This organization is under the direction of Mrs. Vandermark and Mrs. Stewart.

The Lowell High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Minix, began to strive for EXCELLENCE early during the summer of 1964. It was at this time that the band attended band camp in preparation for their first showing as a participant in the marching band contest at the Indiana State Fair. During the summer months the band performed at a number of parades, including a Centennial celebration. Another highlight of the year, aside from the presentation of four concerts to the public, was the marching in the Christmas Parade in Chicago. The parade was televised and, to the surprise of many people of Lowell, the Band appeared on television. The band has worked earnestly this year, and it has been justly rewarded.

BAND

Two senior band members, Mickey Grant, chosen outstanding band member by his fellow classmates, and Dennis Keithley, recipient of the National Arion Foundation Music Award, have seemingly come to "grips" over a note-worthy agreement.

A noontime volleyball game between a student team and a faculty team is always good for a few laughs.

Diane Roberts illustrates Newton's Third Law of Motion on the trampoline. Sure, she knows what she's doing!

G. A. A. games are every bit as exciting as varsity sports, especially during the inter-class tourneys.

SPANISH FIESTA

Everyone eagerly awaits the serving of refreshments. Diane Miller certainly looks eager!

The highlight of the fiesta was when Mary Jane Weddle's pinata finally broke, scattering all its "goodies." (Everyone scrambled to get his share.)

The tables were gaily decorated and added a great deal to the festive atmosphere.

Norma Alexander gave a very inspirational speech on scholarship, one of the four objectives of the National Honor Society.

N.H.S. INSTALLATION

"Smile, Ernie!" says Larry.

"Smile, Larry!" says Ernie.

Our photographers, Ernie Anderson (on top) and Larry Hitzeman (on bottom), are always out to get "new angles" on pictures.

Editor of the LOWELLIAN, Jim Rupar, isn't really trimming his finger-nails, as it might seem. With many hours of hard work ahead, he is getting a head start on the yearbook, with over-the-shoulder assistance from the LOWELLETTE-LOWELLIAN staffs.

The business managers, (l. to r.), Betty Talley and Betty Gray, confer with editor of LOWELLIAN, Jim Ruper. Plans are made for the scheduling of advertising day, when students will solicit for ads. Then comes the job of arranging the advertising pages.

In one of their truly rare serious moments, members of the LOWELLIAN staff work in the darkroom at cutting, arranging, and pasting page layouts. For Marge, Editor in Charge of Copy, and Nancy and Jim, as well as for the other members of the staff, the rewards of a finely-finished year-book and the fellowship of one another while creating it will turn these "times to try mens' souls" into fond "moments to remember."

THE INCOMPARABLE WAYNE KING!
Dennis Keithley, President of the Thespian Society, gives Wayne King a warm handshake and a hearty welcome to Lowell. The gym was filled to capacity as music-lovers, young and old, sat enjoying the beautiful music from the Wayne King Orchestra. His performance, in co-operation with the Thespian Society, was one that will long be remembered by all that were present.

BANQUETS

Mr. Stuart and his wife enjoy the first annual Fall Sports Banquet.

Also enjoying the occasion were these athletes. What are those two Georges doing?

Mr. Todd and Mr. Koontz with Mr. Marion Crawley at the Winter Sports Banquet.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

"Moonlight and Roses" was the theme of this year's Prom, held at the Scherwood Club. Reta Clinton and Ron Shipley were chosen to reign as Queen and King of the festivities. Approximately one hundred couples attended and danced to the music of Johnny Nowlan and his orchestra. The girls in gorgeous dresses and the boys in their tuxes made the Prom one of the loveliest affairs of the year.

"Watch it, Ron!" advises Sgt. [Name] as he proudly crowns the Queen.

The boys lead their ladies forward in the Grand March. Leading this is the duty of the Queen and King.

The royal thrones await the coronation of Their Majesties who reign over the gala affair.

Left: Ray Szarmach, junior class president, studies the result of the effort put forth by his class in order to honor the seniors.

The Grand March, highlight of the Prom, fills the hall with beauty, fun, and laughter.

HONOR DAY

The Senior boys are seated on the floor as the underclassmen begin to fill the bleachers at the beginning of the Honor Day ceremonies.

Betty Gray addresses the student body with the Senior Farewell from the Class of '64. "To you we give the challenge to improve your school, your community, and yourself," was the climax of her speech.

Laura Thomason, Diane Roberts, and Anita Ruper were named Girls' State Delegates by Mrs. Hepp of the Lowell American Legion Auxiliary. The three girls also received checks for their expenses.

The American Legion Post 101 of Lowell and Post 291 of Cedar Lake announced the Boys' State Delegates at the Honor Day program. The boys chosen were Ray Szarmach and John Wilson.

Nancy Dinsmore, Dennis Keithley, Jane Meyer, and Betty Gray were given JoAnne Worley Thespian Trophies for outstanding achievement in dramatics throughout their four years in high school. Also receiving these awards were Ernie Anderson and Dan Herbst, who were not present when the picture was taken.

Laura Thomason, Nancy Lach (seated), Jane Skinner, and Anita Rugar (standing), were presented the junior English awards by Mr. Martin.

The senior English medals were awarded to Jim Rugar, Norma Alexander, Laura Davey, and Jerry Boyd for their excellence in English during the past year.

The Lillian Brownell English Awards are given to three Seniors for outstanding accomplishments in oral English. This year, Howard Nutt was awarded first place; Kathy Bartz, second; and Betty Talley, third.

Emogene Asche was the recipient of the Crisco Award for Outstanding Homemaker of the Year. The award was presented by Mrs. Sue Stewart. Emogene has taken four years of home economics in high school and was a member of the Home Ec Club for three years. She enjoys sewing and knitting and truly deserves the title bestowed upon her.

Dennis Keithley was presented an American Legion scholarship to the college of his choice. In order to qualify, the recipient must have a parent that has been honorably discharged from the Service. This is the first year the Legion has presented the scholarship; plans are to make it an annual project.

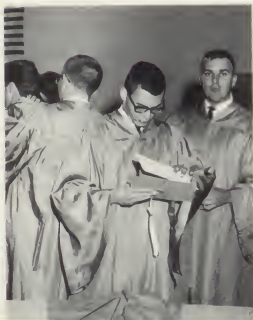

Smiling proudly is Robert (Mike) Cunningham while holding the coveted All-Sports Award. The trophy was presented to Mike on Honor Day by Principal Stuart. Mike has participated in cross country, wrestling, and baseball during his four years in high school.

This year Mrs. Bobbie Hill presented the Senior Woman's Trophy to Sue Usher. In order for a girl to receive this award, she must participate in G. A. A. four years, have an accumulation of two hundred fifty points, a good scholastic standing, and must be a girl of good moral character.

As a member of the Senior Class, very soon you will be making a decision regarding a big step into the future. Perhaps your decision will be to go on for further education. Or it may be, you will be looking for the job of your choice. In either event, this decision will affect and shape your future life in many ways.

Regardless of what you decide, we hope that the Inland Steel Company will be a part of your future. Many graduates are currently involved in successful careers here at the Harbor Works as part of the nation's basic steel industry.

Steel mill work today is highly complex, involving automated production lines which require people who can be trained in skilled jobs. Most of the jobs are involved directly in the steel-making process while others are available in the laboratories or in various departmental offices. Regardless of your interests, excellent opportunities exist with Inland Steel.

In addition to excellent paying jobs and an outstanding benefit program, Inland offers a variety of on-the-job training programs plus the Purdue-Inland Program. This Program, offered to a full time employee, provides training in the areas of steelmaking, mechanics, and electricity. Plan now to investigate the many opportunities for your future with Inland Steel Company.
